2 Semester Undergraduate Stage 2: Business 120 credit points

Interactive Learning Skills & Communications (ILS001)
The aims of this module are to develop a range of academic and communicative skills necessary for successful study in Higher Education; to develop independent learning and encourage students to take responsibility for their personal, academic and professional development; and to develop the knowledge and ability to use a range of digital technologies.

Assessment: 30% examination and 70% coursework
Principles of ICT (BUS107)
This Principles of ICT module attempts to deliver an accurate snapshot of the state of ICT as it exists currently, as well as to equip the student with a useful set of skills in the use of common productivity software and Internet based applications. The module introduces candidates to the interesting challenges that ICT presents today and covers many anchor points that may serve as a bridge to their interests and lifestyles. These bridges include the technology in their mobile telephones, computing equipment, home appliances, motor vehicles, shopping, movies and entertainment software.

Assessment: 60% examination and 40% coursework

Business Studies (BUS106)
This module has been designed to present some of the fundamental aspects of business and the business evaluation process to students seeking to progress to one of the prescribed undergraduate degree programmes at the University of Hertfordshire. They also seek to provide students with an appreciation of the knowledge and skills needed to run a business.

Assessment: 50% examination and 50% coursework

Introduction to Mass Communications (MAC101)
The Mass Communications module is a clear and concise introduction to the communication and manipulation of signs, symbols and language in the modern world. It is through an understanding of these processes that students are able to recognise the ways in which institutions, such as the media, are able to construct “realities” or versions of the world for large groups of people at once. Beginning with a look at some broad definitions and concepts, students are immediately asked to recognise and analyse some of the forms of mass communication that they may have come across in the past and begin to explore new culture-specific forms in Britain.

Assessment: 100% coursework

Introduction to Accounting (BUS114)
The aims of this module are to introduce students to basic accounting and finance; and accounting definitions, calculations and costings.

Assessment: 60% examination and 40% coursework

Globalisation (BUS112)
The aims of this module are to introduce students to the fundamental aspects of Globalization; explore how the concept of Globalisation has evolved; the contexts to which it refers and is used; as well as the economic, political, technological and social forces inclusive of their associated situations, beliefs and historical aspects of local and/or regional phenomena that become global in nature. The module will also describe economic globalization, such as the integration of national economies into the international economy via the mechanisms of trade, investment, capital flow, immigration and migration as well as changes in engineering and technology.

Assessment: 50% examination and 50% coursework

Introduction to Economics (BUS113)
The aims of this module are to introduce students to the concepts of microeconomics and the concepts of macroeconomics.

Assessment: 60% examination and 40% coursework

Business Management (BUS115)
The aims of this module are to introduce students to the concepts of management and the management process; and the basic fundamentals of organisational management and how motivational concepts are applied in the workplace.

Assessment: 60% examination and 40% coursework
